

Bridge Reconstruction

Boston University Bridge

Project Description

The Boston University Bridge, spanning the Charles River between Boston and Cambridge, underwent extensive recent reconstruction. Coneco provided station and offset pre-demolition elevations as well as elevations of key structural members after roadway demolition. This project was phased to permit uninterrupted flow of traffic throughout the duration of construction. Our ability to respond rapidly to conditions as they developed in the field was a key element in the success of this project.

Contact: Timothy S. Bodah, PLS, Principal - Survey
 (617) 328-8931 (cell) • tbodah@coneco.com